

SolarTech Power Solutions

20W energy storage project in South Africa

Overview

The Red Sands project will be the largest standalone BESS to reach this stage on the continent, designed to store power during off-peak hours and release it when demand is highest—providing essential grid stability and flexibility for South Africa's electricity network.

20W energy storage project in South Africa

Contact Us

For catalog requests, pricing, or partnerships, please visit:
<https://zegrzynek.pl>