The much-awaited ministerial decree for zero-subsidy standalone battery systems has been published in Greece. So far, Greece has provided support to 900 MW of standalone storage projects under three previous auctions. The new plan, prepared by the Ministry of the Environment and Energy, calls for.

ELSEWEDY ELECTRIC has officially closed financing for Greece's first standalone 50MW/100MWh Battery Energy Storage System (BESS), a key milestone in the country's push toward renewable energy. Scheduled for completion by Q4 2025, the project will play a crucial role in enhancing the stability of.

The role of Battery Energy Storage Systems (BESS) in stabilizing grids and facilitating the integration of renewable sources has never been more critical. In recent weeks, only months after Greece revised upward its NECP target for storage, there has been a strong policy momentum both in Greece and.

Presenting to the Special Standing Committee on Environmental Protection of the Hellenic Parliament on June 25, 2025, Nikos Mantzaris, policy analyst and co-founder of The Green Tank, highlighted Greece's remarkable progress in renewable energy (RES) and the urgent need to scale up storage.
