In 2025, a new wave of trade measures has reshaped the landscape for U.S. industries dependent on global supply chains. Among the sectors most affected are energy storage, electric vehicles, and electronics—all of which rely heavily on imported components and materials. Recent and expanded tariffs.

Proposed tariff increases on Chinese lithium-iron-phosphate (LFP) battery imports threaten to disrupt the United States' deployment of battery energy storage systems (BESS), a critical enabler of grid stability and the renewable energy transition. While the Inflation Reduction Act (IRA) has.

Batteries imported from China face tariff levies of nearly 150% if all trade actions now under consideration by the U.S. Congress and executive branch come to pass, Clean Energy Associates said Monday. As a result, U.S. prices for 5-MWh lithium-ion battery systems made in China could rise by 8%.
